

American Databank Complio

Website

complio.com

Summary

American Databank Complio is an online platform and service specifically designed for colleges, universities, and other educational institutions to streamline the process of collecting and managing compliance-related information from students, faculty, and staff. Complio can be used to create customized compliance requirements and track the status of individual compliance items.

Who can use this service?

Dept of Nursing

Internal Data (Requires Login)

Status: Active

07/12/2023 17:31:45