Blog

Website

http://help.cms.appstate.edu/book/blogs

Summary

A Blog is made up of a number of individual time-stamped posts called blog entries and allows for registered users to create and maintain a sophisticated online journal. In order to create blog entries the blog module must be enabled by an administrator. In addition, the create blog entries permission must be enabled by an administrator. Go to the website: http://help.cms.appstate.edu/book/blogs for instructions for creating a blog.

Who can use this service?

Faculty and Staff

How do I request this service?

Contact the Webmasters office (webmaster@appstate.edu)

Who do I contact for problems or issues?

The Webmasters Office (webmaster@appstate.edu)

Internal Data (Requires Login)

Status: Active

06/24/2023 09:30:45