Dorico Composition Software

Website

new.steinberg.net/dorico

Summary

Dorico is a professional music notation and composition software designed to be used by composers, arrangers, music educators, and other professionals involved in music notation and scoring. Dorico provides a comprehensive set of tools and features for creating, editing, and formatting musical scores including playback and virtual instruments, customizable workflow and productivity tools, and intelligent engraving.

Internal Data (Requires Login)

Status: Active

07/13/2023 13:57:07