

Smart PLS

Website

smartpls.com

Summary

SmartPLS is a software tool used for structural equation modeling (SEM) and partial least squares (PLS) analysis. SmartPLS provides a user-friendly interface and advanced statistical algorithms to analyze data, assess the significance of relationships, and evaluate model fit. The software offers various features for data preprocessing, model estimation, hypothesis testing, and result visualization.

Internal Data (Requires Login)

Status: Active

07/11/2023 10:00:33