

Mplus

Website

statmodel.com/index.shtml

Summary

Mplus is statistical analysis software used for psychological data, specifically allowing for techniques and statistical modeling necessary for research data that cannot be conducted in other programs like SAS, SPSS, JMP, PYTHON, etc.

Who can use this service?

Mplus is available in select Psychology and College of Education research labs.

How do I obtain a license?

Licenses can be purchased and downloaded directly from their website. Login is not required to access the software specifically.

Internal Data (Requires Login)

Status: Active

07/11/2023 09:55:15