

Ponemah Software System

Website

datasci.com/products/software/ponemah

Summary

The Ponemah software system is a complete physiologic data acquisition and analysis software platform used by physiologists, pharmacologists, and toxicologists to confidently collect, accurately analyze, and quickly summarize study data.

Who can use this service?

Faculty in the Department of Biology

How do I purchase a license?

Users must request a quote directly from their website.

How do I obtain a license?

Users in the Department of Biology should contact Crystal West or Steven Beck inquiring about additional licenses.

All other users should contact the vendor to request a quote.

Internal Data (Requires Login)

Status: Acquired

07/11/2023 09:57:52