

ChemInventory

Website

cheminventory.net

Summary

ChemInventory is a secure, cloud-based software that allows you to manage the chemical containers in your laboratory. Users can search instantly for compounds by name, CAS registry number, structure, or custom fields.

Who can use this service?

Environmental Health, Safety, & Emergency Management

How do I purchase a license?

Licenses can be purchased directly from their website. Users should obtain permission from their Department Chair/Unit Head prior to purchasing any software licenses.

How do I obtain a license?

Licenses are managed by Environmental Health, Safety, & Emergency Management.

How do I request this service?

Please contact Environmental Health, Safety, & Emergency Management for information on using this service.

Internal Data (Requires Login)

Status: Acquired

07/05/2023 12:57:17