Welcome to the support website of Watermark Faculty Success (formerly Digital Measures), an online tool available to Appalachian State faculty* with the College of Fine and Applied Arts, the College of Business and University Library. Watermark Faculty Success allows users to record their professional activities including teaching, service, research and publications. Watermark Faculty Success also serves several reporting needs, including the production of vitas, departmental annual reports and various accreditation standards.

A five-step introduction to Watermark Faculty Success is available for faculty to review. There is also a checklist for reviewing entries to ensure they have been recorded correctly for reporting needs.

If you have any questions with regard to Watermark Faculty Success, please contact the University Administrator Rob Robertson at robertsonrw@appstate.edu.

In late August 2021, DM access was removed for colleges not actively engaged with the application. No user information was deleted. All users who have information in the application can get a copy of their data by request.*
